

ARRL Indiana Section Amateur of the Year Nomination Form

Nominee Information - Type in form or print legibly all entries

Last Name	First Name	Call Sign	Phone
Street Address	City	Zip Code	Email

Nominee Qualities - Examples of adherence to the Amateur Code and ARRL Five Pillars

- 1. Public Service - How has the nominee used amateur radio to support his/her community?
- 2. Advocacy - How has the nominee been a proactive advocate or representative voice for achieving regulatory, legislative, or community outreach goals in support of amateur radio?
- 3. Education - How has the nominee demonstrated a commitment to lifetime learning, certification, and personal achievement in amateur radio?

ARRL Indiana Section Amateur of the Year

Nomination Form (page 2)

4. Technology - How has the nominee contributed to or participated in the advancement of radio science?

5. Membership - How has the nominee advanced amateur radio participation and embraced inclusiveness and diversity in the hobby?

Nominations: Open April 1 – Close August 31. Nomination forms may be requested from the Section Manager or Affiliated Club Coordinator. Nominations may be submitted by any Indiana Section resident licensed amateur radio operator. The nominee may NOT nominate himself/herself. In the event more than one person wants to nominate the same individual, the Section Manager will notify the parties and request they collaborate to submit a single nomination form. All nomination submissions must be received by the Section Manager or Affiliated Club Coordinator by September 1.

Eligibility: All licensed amateur radio operators resident in the Indiana Section are eligible to be nominated with the following exceptions;

- 1) The current Section Manager or other ARRL elected officers who may reside in Indiana
  - 2) Previous ARRL Indiana Section Amateur of the Year winners
- (NOTE: previous nominees who did not win are still eligible)

I hereby certify that I am eligible under the rules and policies pertaining to the ARRL Indiana Section Amateur of the Year Award program to submit this nomination form. I also certify that all information supplied on this form is truthful and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

Name (print legibly)

Signature (if submitted as printed copy) / Call Sign

Date mm/dd/yy